Introducing the Manfrotto Befree Carbon tripod

The travel photography tripod has now become even lighter.

Super light & compact, fast to set up and intuitive to use, but also surprisingly stable: this tripod captures stunningly precise, sharp images.

A stylish design you'll want to take with you everywhere thanks to its ultra-lightweight 100% carbon fiber legs.

Lightweight

Brand new 100 % carbon fiber legs ensure great lightness, transportability and rigidity - all in one product. The Befree carbon weighs just 1,1 kg (2.42 lbs)

Portability

Designed to be compact and portable, Befree is the perfect size to fit into hand luggage and backpacks, making it easier than ever to carry. Thanks to its unique mechanism, the tripod is only 40 cm (15,7in) long when folded. The Quick Release Adaptor enables the foldable legs to pack very tightly.

Transportability

Befree Carbon easily follows you everywhere and is always comfortable to carry thanks to its padded carry bag. Extra padding makes it simple to pack in your luggage and protects it from any accidental damage.

Outstanding Style

Befree Carbon's premium Italian design and graphics are eye catching and attractive. Add style to your gear with this great looking and superbly designed photographic tool. Stand out from the crowd and express your new & unique photographic style.
